

Please do not override the state statute. Since the beginning of the no call list in Indiana, we haven't had more than a half dozen calls. The peace is priceless. Surely there are more important things to spend your time on. If it amounts to anything at all, my wife, Terry and I wish to maintain the status quo. Thank you.